Buckhorn Lake State Resort Park

Buckhorn Lake State Resort Park is nestled among hills that time forgot, only minutes from the Daniel Boone Parkway, but far from urban crowds and congestion. The resort rests along the northern edge of the Redbird Purchase in the Daniel Boone National Forest. Every view from this mountain resort is a front-row seat to nature's pageantry with each changing season.

Buckhorn Lodge

Experience the warm, inviting atmosphere of Buckhorn Lodge, built with Bedford sandstone and trimmed with wood paneling. Relax in front of the copper-hooded fireplace or simply enjoy the fresh mountain air on the lodge veranda. Each of the 36 rooms features private balconies or patios to enjoy the view of Buckhorn Lake and the surrounding mountains. The gift shop offers a beautiful selection of Kentucky handcrafts, books and gift items. Rooms are available by late afternoon; check out by noon, Eastern Time.

Cottages

Two two-bedroom executive cottages and one three-bedroom cottage are available. Tableware, cooking utensils, and linens are provided, with fresh linens available daily. Cottages are available by late afternoon, check out by 11 am.

Bowlingtown Country Kitchen

Enjoy fine Kentucky cuisine, gracious service and spectacular mountain scenery in the 210-seat room serving breakfast, lunch and dinner year-round.
